

A Cost Effective Language Programme for your Company

Your employees/colleagues will be able to...

Work with multinational companies in the clients' language.

Be prepared to receive visitors and clients in the 2012 Olympics.

Operate confidently in other countries.

Enjoy learning about other cultures.

All this is done during the lunch break in the company. No need to travel anywhere.

What we do...

From our office we liaise directly with your employees, organising all courses from start to finish.

Testing students, taking on teachers, invoicing students and monitoring courses.

Cost of the course is shared by the employees with no cost to the company.

The company provides the use of a room for the classes during lunchtime.
